DETAILED ACTION

Preliminary Amendment

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the preliminary amendment filed 26 May 2004.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chatwin et al. (U.S. patent No. 5,310,222, from hereinafter "Chatwin").

Regarding independent claims 1, 17, and 30, Chatwin teaches a security feature, and method to make the security feature, comprising a first covert layer comprising a covert material (layer of reflective metal 5), an optically variable layer comprising an optically variable material (optically diffracting pattern 3), and a second covert layer (printing ink images 4) disposed adjacent to the second side of the optically variable layer so as to cover at least a portion of the optically variable layer. More specifically, the device shown in FIG. 1 comprises a transparent plastics support 1 bearing a coating 2 into which an optically diffracting pattern 3 has been embossed in a known manner. Printing ink images 4 are placed on the surface profile and a layer of reflective metal 5 is applied by vapour deposition. The thin metallic layer 5 is then covered with a protective coating of a thermoplastic polymer 6. Chatwin also discloses that the materials are not visible to human eyes except under certain conditions when it is taught that the device is viewed through the plastics support 1 which is transparent thus enabling the hologram or other diffraction pattern defined by the embossed pattern 3 and metallisation 5 to be viewed. In addition, the image 4 is seen. Further regarding claim 17, Chatwin teaches a laminate layer (thermoplastic polymer 6). Regarding claims 2-16, 18-29, and 31-35, Chatwin teaches the conventional materials and processes of a security device (see Figure 1, col 1 line 5 to col 7, line 60, especially col 6 line 60 to col 7 line 5).

Examiner's Note

3. Examiner has cited particular column and line numbers in the references as applied to the claims above for the convenience of the applicant. It is respectfully requested from the Applicant in preparing responses, to fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the Prior Art or disclosed by the Examiner.
